Majority (202) 225-2927
Minority (202) 225-3641

July 9, 2015

The Honorable Tom Wheeler
Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairman Wheeler:

For over a decade, the Federal Communications Commission has required wireless carriers to implement local number portability, allowing consumers to switch among service providers while keeping their phone number. As you noted earlier this year, “[e]very day, more than 100,000 individuals and businesses in America switch their phone carriers but keep their old number.”

Consumers overwhelmingly prefer to keep their numbers when they switch carriers. However, those hoping to switch to non-nationwide wireless carriers may be unable to port-in their existing numbers under today’s rules. This distinction within the number portability rules places non-nationwide providers at a competitive disadvantage, and as a recent white paper on this issue from the North American Numbering Council noted, this could result in consumer confusion when attempting to switch providers.

We urge you to act expeditiously to resolve this customer confusion and support nationwide wireless number portability for all providers.

Sincerely,

Fred Upton, Chairman
Committee on Energy and Commerce
